

W. S. WYNNER, General Newspaper Advertiser, Agent, corner of Olive and Main streets, Louisville, Ky., is the Agent for the following papers:
A. D. JACKSON,
SUCCESSOR TO T. G. GARRISON & CO., is the authorized agent for the Louisville Times.
Newspaper Advertisers, Agents, and Publishers, No. 100 West Third Street, bet. Fourth and Fifth, Cincinnati, O.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1896.

JOHN PRINTING.

The proprietors of the Daily Louisville Times having recently refitted and greatly enlarged their job printing facilities, invite the patronage of the public.

MERCANTILE, STEAMBOAT, SHOW, POS-TER and other printing done in a superior manner, with great expedition, and at the lowest rates.

We invite all who desire work done to call, and examine our facilities and specimens.
We have experienced workmen employed, and warrant all work to give entire satisfaction.

Democratic Meeting.

The 5th and 6th wards held a united meeting at Democratic Hall-quarters this (Wednesday) evening August 27th. After the preliminary business, an address will be delivered by a gentleman invited for the occasion, who will discuss upon the political topics of the day.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

Urbana, Ill., Aug. 27th.
A commodious hall will leave the Louisville ferry wharf at foot of 2d street at 10 o'clock A. M. (time changed) for Urbana, with a fine band of music on board. Fare for the trip 60 cents ladies free.

Speakers—Thomas W. Brown, Hon. Wm. H.
English, and Hon. and Thos. H. Holt of Kentucky.

Shelby County Indiana.

The Democracy of Shelby County, Indiana, are to have a great mass meeting at Shelbyville, on Thursday, August 28. A free dinner, in true Hoosier style will be prepared on the occasion. Among the speakers expected are Col. Allen, of Illinois; Col. Preston, of Kentucky; Gen.
Joe Lane, Senator Bright, Gov. Wright, Lieut.
Governor Willard and Hon. T. A. Hendricks, and a host of others.

"Thanks to Hon. A. G. Tabb and Hon.
H. C. Barnett for favors from Washington."

The city schools will convene on next Monday, the 1st of September.

An attempt was made to burn down the Enquirer office, at Cincinnati, on Monday night.

The Internets at New Orleans for the week ending on the 17th were 105, of which five were yellow fever.

We assure our friends everywhere that Kentucky will do her duty in November and roll up an increased majority for Buck and Breckinridge.

A very small delegation, about thirteen persons, left this city yesterday, to attend the "Grand American mass meeting" at Covington.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the "Walnut Hill Female Institute" under the care of Rev. J. J. Bullock.
It is said to be one of the very best educational institutions in the State.

MAN KILLED.—A German named Ferdinand Miller, who was engaged in the candle factory of Mr. Fabel, in Butcher street, was killed yesterday morning by a press falling on his head, and literally crushed.

Napoleon III. has sent a magnificent diamond snuff box to Rev. Mr. Stewart, chaplain in the U. S. navy, who was published in New York, not long since, a letter endorsing Mr. Bonaparte's conduct while he was in this country as quite correct.

TRIPPER.—The New Albany & Salem Railroad will carry passengers who wish to attend the great Mass Meeting to be held at the Battle ground on the 30th Sept. next, for half fare.
For particulars see the advertisement in our paper today.

The following is the result of a vote taken on the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad yesterday morning:

Buchanan, (gentlemen)	30
(ladies)	10
Fillmore, (gentlemen)	30
(ladies)	10

OWN'S HOME.—This popular house, with our refined family style as proprietors, still retains its reputation as a first class hotel. It has been largely refitted and refurnished in a style which ranks it among the very best houses of its kind in the Western country. Guests putting up at the Owen's will find every comfort and convenience they can reasonably wish. Mr. Stealy is a gentlemanly and accommodating landlord, and will spare no pains or expense to make his guests comfortable and satisfied. The terms are as reasonable as one can wish. The Owen's Hotel is well worthy of the patronage of our citizens and others.

A BIO STRAW.—A was taken on the last California steamer, just arrived, resulting as follows:

Buchanan,	625
Fillmore and Fremont,	125

Hoop! That shows the estimation of the Cat-Delefora speculators at home.

WALKER'S OMBUDSMAN.—Mr. J. B. Walker is running a line of omnibuses in connection with the Louisville and Frankfort and Louisville and Nashville Railroads. His omnibuses are new and comfortable, with careful and experienced drivers. The "busses" will carry passengers and baggage to and from all hotels and all parts of the city. Orders below Fourth street left at the Exchange Hotel, and above Fourth street left at the Neal House, will meet with prompt attention.

CITY COURT.

Thursday, Aug. 26.
Philip McDonald, running his Mule in the street. Fined $5.

German Intendant used out a peace warrant against Joseph Oswald. Own recognition of Oswald for the good behavior of his boys.

Wm. Whelan, selling liquor on Sunday. A boy testified that he had bought liquor of Whelan last Sunday. Continued till tomorrow.

Alex. Hatfield (f. m. c.) was brought in from the work-house and gave bail.

Ralph Roberts was discharged from the workhouse.

David Sullivan, drunk and disorderly conduct and carrying concealed a deadly weapon (a bowie knife). Bail in $100 to answer an indictment for carrying concealed a weapon.

Mary Ann Smith was found in a negro house up town about 11 o'clock last night. Bail in $100 for two months. Workhouse.

Edna Edler, walking in the streets late at night. She has been repeatedly warned by the officers not to walk the streets after night. Bail in $100 for one month. Workhouse.

Henry Winterhalter, assault on Louis Schultz.
Bail in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Way to our friends, in all sincerity, that we are fully confident of Tennessee.

New Goods.—Miller & Tabb are this morning in receipt of several lots of new goods, consisting in part of solid colored De Laines in various colors, printed Turkey red calicoes, watered beddings, cambric bands, milled colored kid gloves, ladies' kid gaiters, embroidered cambric collars, taffeta ribbons, &c., to which they respectfully invite attention.

Their purchasers are now in the East and will continue to send, from time until the close of the season, all the newest styles of goods and novelties as fast as they appear, and as they intend to sell their goods as low as the same class of goods can be sold anywhere, they earnestly invite the ladies to call and inspect their assortment before making their selections. Corner Fourth and Market streets. a15 dr

SHORT AND SWEET—No. 1.—Lay in your coal before it reaches 25 cents a bushel.

Be polite—sweep no more coals than you can find in your dictionary.

Never touch a black glove against a lady's face.
If you're got a five dollar bill and your neighbor only has a one, don't stick your nose up at him—your bank might break.

Be sensible before you're smart.

Don't let your ambition get ahead of your judgment—remember the old Ben Franklin was always breaking because he had too much steam power for his hull.

Don't dress in pink, blue, or white to have your picture taken, and then tell the Artist you thought it wouldn't take well.

Harris' Gallery is on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth.

A nod is as good as a wink to a blind horse.

THIRD STREET FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—It has been whispered around among the knowing ones, that the person who caused the late fire on Third street, who, if not under shelter, was caught in the rain on Monday night. Be this as it may, a matter of far more importance to the public generally has come to light. We have it from the best authority that J. B. Wilder & Bro., Lindenberger & Co., Senour & Smith, Stewart, Miller & Co., and J. S. Morris & Son, all wholesale druggists in this city, are agents for and sell at proprietor's prices, Porter's Oriental Liniment.
This deservedly popular Liniment sells faster and gives more satisfaction than any other medicine now before the public. Every country merchant and dealer in medicine should keep a supply on hand, as it pays a good profit to the retailer, and is certain to sell wherever it is introduced. Principal depot 327 Main street, between 7th and 8th, Louisville, Ky. d4w Honesty is the best policy especially when people are watching you, and we know of some individuals who will find it so, for we do not believe the Kentuckians are fond of humbug soup, humbug dishes, and humbug announcements of humbug arrangements generally. We believe they understand the proper management of any kind of business enough to know, that any man or woman who takes pride in, and expects to make his business profitable, will avail themselves of everything which will add either to his or her fortune. Therefore, in bringing our new style of Pictures before the public, we feel that our reputation is at stake, but we know of no other Glass Picture in which we have so much confidence, nor is there any other style of Pictures one half so beautiful. We have reference to the Spherotype as taken at Webster's Gallery.

N. B.—W. & B. have secured the exclusive right to make and sell this style of pictures in Louisville.

NEW ALBANY AND SALEM RAILROAD.—This road is the speediest route to Chicago and the Northwest. Passengers leave the depot at New Albany at 1:45 P. M., and arrive at Chicago at 7 o'clock the following morning. The way mail train leaves at four in the morning. Both trains connect at Terre Haute with the St. Louis and Chicago trains and with all the trains leaving Chicago in every direction. The road is in capital condition and recently a number of splendid passenger cars have been put on it. An omnibus will call in any part of the city at passengers and deliver them at the depot. New Albany free of charge, on application to the agent, A. H. Haines, opposite the Galt House.

We are now prepared to fill orders for Sugar Cured Corned Beef, Best Tongues half barrels family Mess Beef, half barrels Mess Pork, Canned Sugar Cured Ham and Shoulders, Sides and breakfast Bacon.

Also, Plantation Mess Beef, which we are selling at a little over the present price of Mess Pork. JNO. F. GUNDEL & Co. a14 d6 No. 466 Market street.

A PERFECTED REMEDY.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate that their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and rosy hue.
Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVE WITH CARE.—Wet your shaving-brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft and lather much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only Fifty Cents. Ferridge & Co., Proprietors.

For sale by J. S. Morris & Sons, R. A. Robinson & Co., Bell, Talbot & Co., Louisville, Ky.; Schirmer & Devoil, New Albany, and All Drug gists a14 d6

GREAT RUSSIAN REMEDY.

FOR NOSE PUBLIC.

"Every mother should have a box in her house handy in case of accidents to the children."

Russia's Russia Naive.

It is a Russian remedy of thirty years' standing, and is recommended by physicians. It is a sure and speedy cure for Burns, Piles, Boils, Corns, Fomels, Chubains, and Old Sores of every kind; for Fever Sores, Ulcers, Itch, Scald Head, Nettle Rash, and all other eruptions (recommended by nurses). Whitlows, Sings, Fingers, Flea Bites, Spider Sings, Frozen Limbs, Salt Rheum, Scorvy, Sores, Ulcers, Sore Nose, Waris and Fish Wounds, It is a most valuable remedy and cure, which can be testified to by thousands who have used it in the city of Boston and vicinity for the last thirty years. In no instance will this Salve cause any injury, or interfere with a physician's prescription. It is made from the purest materials, from a recipe brought from Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the proprietors have letters from all classes, clergymen, physicians, sea captains, nurses, and others who have used it themselves and recommend it to others. Bedding's Russia Salve put in large tin boxes, stamped on the cover with a picture of a soldier and a disabled soldier, which picture is also engraved on the wrapper.

Price, 25 cents a box.

REDDING & CO., Proprietors.

R. A. Robinson & Co., Bell, Talbot & Co., Louisville; Schirmer & Devoil, New Albany. a14 d6

How truly said, we live in an age of improvement. Trolz who keeps up with the times improvements, has got to making pictures on paper instead of glass; not photographs, but superior pictures to anything of the kind. Pictures made at Trolz's Gallery give all the true color to drapery and complexion, of a colored picture in oil. Persons wishing to get pictures of John C. Beckwith, can be supplied by calling at the rooms. Agents furnished orders to do well.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—
River unchanged. Weather clear and pleasant.

TELEGRAPHIC

THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS—EXTRA SESSION.

Tuesday's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.

SENATE.—Mr. Crittenden asked leave to introduce a bill to alter and amend the Nebraska Kansas act.

Mr. Briggs objected to its reception, when Mr.
Crittenden gave notice he would introduce the bill tomorrow.

Mr. Waller introduced the bill of which he gave notice yesterday to alter certain laws enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Kansas.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the green with that body that some of those laws were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious to wipe that stain from the record.

Mr. Waller observed that he was willing to do
all in his power to obviate existing difficulties.
The House had in a different form expressed their
disapproval of the Kansas Legislature, and the
green with that body that some of those laws
were not only the organic act but the Constitution of the United States. He was therefore anxious

